WEDDING TIPS

- break-in new shoes well before wedding date
- confirm and re-confirm all venues, caterers, flowers, cakes, transportation, appointments, rentals, honeymoon details, etc. the month and week prior to the wedding
- ask the bridal shop where the wedding dress was purchased to recommend a seamstress for alterations
- if the wedding dress needs alterations, book alterations months prior to the wedding to ensure adequate time for significant changes or ordering extra fabric
- book any significant hair length changes for a couple weeks prior to the event to ensure hair is the desired length
- book facial or similar treatment for one to two weeks prior to ceremony to allow skin to calm in time
- book a practice make-up and hair session to experiment with looks and find the perfect style
- book manicure/pedicure for day prior to ceremony to avoid smudges and wet nails the day of the ceremony
- do something relaxing the morning of the wedding, such as going for a walk, or having a massage
- try to get adequate sleep the night before, as the wedding day will be long and busy
- do not forget to eat the morning of the ceremony
- delegate duties to attendants prior to wedding day
- delegate an attendant to care for wedding gown after the bride has changed clothing
- delegate an attendant to transport gifts from reception to specified location
- make arrangements for all vendors to be paid
- discuss music selections with DJ or band prior to wedding day
- ensure the DJ has desired versions of musical selections
- choose a variety of music styles to suit everyone's preference - consider having the midnight lunch a little earlier than midnight, as some guests may not be able to stay until midnight
- plan an itinerary for honeymoon
- make necessary restaurant, museum, and activity reservations for honeymoon
- obtain traveller's checks, foreign currency, and special documentation well before honeymoon
- most importantly, relax and have a good time!
